COUNTY CONVENTION.

Our Candidates for the Legislature. In accordance with a call issued by Dr. ogan, chairman of the Ohio county delegates to the late Congressional Con-vention, the delegates assembled at the Court House on Saturday morning for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature, and transacting any other business of importance. As the County Court was in session, the delegates met in a small room up stairs. About 11 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Dr. Logan, with W. F. Peterson and Frank Johnson as Secretaries. The list of delegates was called, and all the districts were found to be represented.

A motion of Mr. J. R. Hubbard, of Centre district, that the Convention pro-ceed to the nomination of candidates for the House of Delegates, was carried.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION. The vote of Ohio county for Governor Jacob in 1873 was taken as a basis of representation. This gave to each discrete the following rate. Weakington trict the following vote: Washington 311; Madison, 346; Clay, 274; Centre 184; Webster, 352; Ritchie, 379; Union 389; Tridelphia, 178; Richland, 104 Liberty, 158. Aggregate vote, 2,730; ncc essary to a choice, 1,366.

CHILDREN BUILDING A CHURCH.-On the jury. last Sabbath Rev. Barnitz, of the English Lutheran Church, requested each of his Sunday School scholars to bring one or two bricks to school with them the next time they came, for the purpose of building an addition to the church. Yesterday each and every child brought, to the school from one to five bricks, and in a short time about two thousand bricks were piled up near the pulpit. The little ones say they are not done yet, and expect to have fully ten thousand brick on the ground next the church by Wednesday or Thurs-
